This two-nation cruise includes it all.

From the glitz and dazzle of the Manhattan skyline to the cobblestone streets and vintage charm of Quebec, the romantic contrast of the city scenes and surging rivers makes this journey worthy to be in our 'Signature Series' portfolio. Go where other ships cannot, as we transit the Erie Canal, something only Blount boats can do because of their design. Cruise through the stunning Thousand Islands along the St. Lawrence Seaway, part of the international boundary between the US and Canada. The seaway is a system of locks, canals, and channels dotted with waterfront communities, scenic islands, and amazing wildlife habitats. Explore Quebec City, considered by many to be the most romantic city in North America, before concluding this amazing journey in vibrant Montreal.

DAY 1 New York City, NY

Embark today in New York City and prepare to cruise the most renowned waters of New York State and southeastern Canada.

DAY 2 West Point, NY and Kingston, NY

Begin your day with a morning sail through New York Harbor passing the Statue of Liberty before the majestic natural beauty of the Hudson River Valley unfolds before you. This afternoon, arrive in West Point, NY, home to the prestigious West Point Military Academy. Later, an afternoon sail takes you to Kingston, NY, where you may choose to visit the Hudson River Maritime Museum.

DAY 3 Troy, NY

This morning in Kingston, an optional tour to Hyde Park includes a visit to "Springwood," the beloved estate home of President Franklin D. Roosevelt. Later, travel up the northern leg of the Hudson River to Troy, NY. The retractable pilot-house will be lowered to transit the famed Erie Canal.

DAY 4 Cruise the Erie Canal

Going where other ships simply cannot go, we transit the Erie Canal, something only Blount boats can do because of their design.

DAY 5 Cooperstown, NY and Sylvan Beach, NY

Located in the foothills of the Catskills Mountains, Cooperstown, NY is home to the National Baseball Hall of Fame, the Farmers Museum, and the Fenimore Art Museum. Watch America's history come alive in this picturesque town that combines big-city excitement with small town charm. Tonight arrive in Sylvan Beach, NY on the shores of shimmering Lake Oneida.

DAY 6 Oswego, NY

Cruise along the Oswego Canal to Oswego, NY, located on the shores of magnificent Lake Ontario. You may choose to take a local shuttle on a panoramic loop around this charming area and view some of the highlights such as the H. Lee White Marine Museum, the Richardson-Bates House Museum, or Fort Ontario.

DAY 7 Clayton, NY

Today, cruise to Clayton, NY in the gorgeous Thousand Islands region. You will visit the notable Antique Boat Museum for a glimpse of the world's largest showcase of classic recreational boats. Spend the night in beautiful Alexandria Bay, NY with views of the famed Boldt Castle.

DAY 8 Ogdensburg, NY

Cruise through the stunning Thousand Islands along the St. Lawrence River, part of the international boundary between the US and Canada. Visit tiny Dark Island in Chippewa Bay and tour the stately and elegant Singer Castle. Continue on to Ogdensburg, NY where you may opt to visit the Frederic Remington Art Museum to admire the original works of this American painter.

DAY 9 Cruise the St. Lawrence Seaway

Crossing into Canada, cruise the St. Lawrence Seaway, the gateway from the Atlantic Ocean to the North American Great Lakes. The seaway is a system of locks, canals, and channels dotted with waterfront communities, scenic islands, and amazing wildlife habitats.

DAY 10 Quebec City, QC

After a day of cruising, arrive tonight in Quebec City.

DAY 11 Quebec City, QC

Quebec City, QC, with its distinctly French culture, is considered by many to be the most romantic city in North America. This morning, an optional tour introduces the charms of Quebec City and the stunning view from Observation Towers before visiting the impressive Montmorency Falls. Tonight, a local pianist entertains you onboard.

DAY 12 Three Rivers, QC

Your port of call today is charming Three Rivers, QC, also known as Trois-Rivières in French, named for the juxtaposition of the three mouths of the Saint-Maurice River at the St. Lawrence River. This evening, enjoy a special opportunity to visit the Musée des Ursulines, a short walk from the ship and listen to a private organ recital inside the museum's awe-inspiring chapel.

DAY 13 Montreal, QC

Spend a full day discovering the treasures of Montreal, QC. You may choose an optional city tour that includes Old Montreal, Olympic Park, Mount Royal Park, and St. Joseph's Oratory; or enjoy exploring this enchanting and historic city at your leisure. This evening enjoy a musical performance of the flute and guitar by local entertainers.

DAY 14 Montreal, QC

Disembark today in Montreal.
