

Savor the Flavors OF THE AMERICAS

A single flavor can ignite a memory and recall a sense of place, from Pacific Coast wild salmon to moonshine bread pudding reminiscent of the Tennessee hills. Aboard the ships of American Queen Steamboat Company and Victory Cruise Lines, our culinary teams create artful, regionally influenced dishes to enhance the guest experience in the most tasteful ways.

More than just breakfast, lunch and dinner, the culinary experience aboard our ships is an intrinsic part of the overall journey, opening wide a sense of discovery to provide a connection to the places explored. Tantalizing menus showcase authentic flavors, indigenous spices and bold creativity, yet still feature traditional favorites we've all come to know as comfort food, always good for the soul.

Beyond our beautiful dining rooms or the comfort of 24-hour in-room dining, the grand comestible show with culinary and wine themed voyages, and optional premium excursions ashore.

Guests will fall in love with the Americas, one delicious bite at a time. Each day of their journey promises to satiate their taste buds and provide lasting memories for years to come.

A SAMPLING OF OPTIONAL "CULINARY" PREMIUM EXPERIENCES

From Sap to Syrup: A Sugar Shack Experience MONTRÉAL, QUÉBEC

Take a trip through time to the authentic sugar shack, Sucrerie De La Montagne. Uncover the timeless tradition of maple syrup making in Québec. Climb aboard a horse-drawn carriage and head out to the century-old maple trees that envelop the shack, and watch with wonder as our guide extracts sap right out of the tree trunks. Then, discover the secrets that transform this sticky substance into a sweet treat. Back at the shack, get a taste of the fresh Canadian maple syrup along with a "Sugar Man's Lunch" followed by joyful music and dancing.

An Amish Experience CLEVELAND, OHIO

Depart the big city and move through time as we travel the back roads of Ohio to "Amish Country." You will notice the stark difference between the busy city and the vast open farmland of the Amish countryside. As we approach the house of Mary Miller, we may see Amish men working their farms, roadside stands featuring fresh produce and baked goods, and the horse and buggy in lieu of cars. When we reach the home, we will be welcomed by Mary Miller for an authentic Amish Wedding Feast. Get your taste buds ready for the feast featuring chicken, mashed potatoes, stuffing, gravy, seasonal vegetables, seven-layer salad, Amish date nut pudding, fresh bread, and of course, Amish pies! Mary will make certain that no one will leave her table hungry!
