MEDITERRANEAN, ADRIATIC AND GREEK ISLES ON SEABOURN OVATION

FEATURED PORTS

BONIFACIO, ITALY

Bonifacio is a medieval Italian beauty that must be seen from the sea to be believed, with its old town and imposing citadel perched atop the white limestone cliffs of Corsica's southern coast. The cobblestone streets and piazzas are abuzz with craft shops, bars and brasseries, while fine-sand beaches and hidden pirate coves are within easy reach.

LA CIOTAT, FRANCE

La Ciotat, a sleepy seaside village along France's southern coast. Birthplace of pétanque and home to the world's oldest operating cinema, La Ciotat delights with its quaint old town, picturesque fishing harbor, and a trove of beautiful beaches—without the usual Côte d'Azur crowds.

ROSAS (ROSES), SPAIN

Rosas (Roses) is as pretty as the flower for which it is named, set along Spain's sunny Costa Brava and surrounded by vineyards and olive groves. Guests can explore the town's 16th-century castle, visit the buzzy fish market, and discover a trove of nearby treasures, including the megalithic dolmen of Creu d'en Cobertella and Greco-Roman archaeological site of Empúries.

SPÉTSAI (SPETSES), GREECE

Spétsai (Spetses), a low-key Greek island with a rich maritime history and upscale vibe. Its winding, cobble lanes lined with Neoclassical villas and strict no-car policy makes for a pedestrian paradise (its many beaches are heavenly, too).
