Silverseas Fall Foliage in the Maritime Provinces

In October, as New England and Canada is brilliant with fall foliage, Silverseas sets sail for the rugged shores of the Maritime Provinces.

Silverseas's Canada cruises sail into the postcard-perfect settings of rustic fishing towns where you can get your fill of lobster bakes and salty tales. Watch for whales as you sail the Saint Lawrence Seaway. Experience the café lifestyle of Quebec's distinct Francophone culture. Back across the border; explore Maine's Acadia National Park, watching for timid wild deer in forests of peeling birch trees. Admire Newport's "cottages" and walk the Freedom Trail in Boston. Silverseas's popular Canada and New England cruises are as multi-hued – and as short-lived – as the glorious fall foliage.

With just 382 guests on board, Silverseas offers Butler Service to every Suite, an open bar policy, fine dining and beautifully crafted itineraries.

4 Ways to Cruise the Legendary Inside Passage

- Big ship, or mass market/mainstream, usually YVR – Seward vv, or YVR round trip.
- Small ship offering a similar experience ashore to big ship, but a more intimate, small ship experience on board.
- Boutique small boat doing round trips from Juneau, or SEA - JUN
- Adventure Cruising on a small boat. This is un-conventional cruising and affords a very authentic, up-close and personal experience. It's sight-doing not sight-seeing!

Whatever your clients cruise requirements are, Cruise World offers the widest range of cruising options for the Inside Passage. Team this with Canada Traveller for customised land arrangements, guided small group tours, or self-drive options, and you have Canada and Alaska sorted lock, stock and smoking barrel.
