New Journeys & Cruises

With Gratitude

2025 marks 100 years of serving our guests. We are filled with heartfelt gratitude to you, our loyal guests, for trusting us to fulfill your travel dreams – and I sincerely thank you for being part of our global Tauck family.

You continually inspire us, with your feedback and wish lists, to innovate, to move forward, and to raise the bar. I'm pleased to introduce new 2025 journeys, destinations, and favorite trips from years gone by – reimagined for you, today's travelers.

The future is here – and we look forward to joining you on travels for a new centennial.

With warmest regards,

Dan

A Century Of Travel

We're delighted to bring you this exciting, curated collection of new and reimagined tours in our 100th year. The spirit of innovation that created our company is very much alive today in new generations, inspiring in all of us a restless desire to continually move forward. New for 2025, we're so pleased to introduce:

New Land Trips & Cruises

We continue to evolve with the needs and desires of guests like you, to constantly make things better and better – and to discover new experiences that will delight you, including:

- Two new Tauck Bridges family adventures in Japan and Scotland, interactive family fun for every generation of your family
- Two new A Week In... journeys with travels through the northern Italy region of Piedmont and the heart of Switzerland
- A new river cruise on the Rhine and Moselle, bookended by Paris and Prague
- Nine days in Colombia traveling in and around Bogotá, Medellín and Cartagena
- A journey exploring America through its musical roots from Nashville to New Orleans

Heritage Journeys

Moving forward often includes a look back – and by popular demand, we're bring back a few of our "heritage" tours – revised and enhanced in a contemporary way:

- A Celebration of Roses, featuring the Rose Parade, that will kick off our 100th celebration
- Two small ship cruises in the Mediterranean and the Aegean
- England & the West Country – the tour that launched "The Yellow Roads of Europe" in the 1990s returns, along with an updated take on one of our first France trips
- Cuba, a favorite destination of ours in the 1930s, and the 2010s, returning in 2024 and 2025

Reimagined Travels

We're reimagining some of our most popular journeys in 2025 beginning with:

- Northern Spain, now including the rich cultural heritage of French Basque Country
- Our Spain and Portugal 14-day journey, where we've created a more comprehensive experience on the Iberian Peninsula

A Celebration of Roses

5 DAYS / DEC 29, 2024 – JAN 2, 2025

We could think of no better way to launch our 100th anniversary year than by bringing back A Celebration of Roses, combining small group sightseeing tracks by day with exclusive private gala evening events held in premier venues. You'll view the iconic 2025 Pasadena Tournament of Roses® Rose Parade, with an opportunity to attend the 111th annual Rose Bowl Game (at additional cost).

Highlighted by:

- Four nights at the premier Beverly Wilshire, A Four Seasons Hotel in the heart of Beverly Hills; take a studio backlot tour and visit The Huntington Library and its fabulous Botanical Gardens
- A gala New Year's Eve celebration based on "1920s Hollywood." It's been romanticized, immortalized and idolized, paying cinematographic tribute to legions of stars since the 1920s when filmmaking first began and defined "Hollywood" as a name in itself
- A behind-the-scenes look at the Rose Parade Float Construction Barns to see the many-petaled floats that will line the parade route
