THE STRAND CRUISE

We are pleased to introduce The Strand Cruise, our 25-luxury cabin custom river cruiser sailing Myanmar's fabled Ayeyarwady River between the sky-piercing pagodas of Bagan and Mandalay, the inspiration for Kipling's most famous poetry.

Designed with a top deck swimming pool and shaded outdoor lounge, spa, fitness centre and wine cellar, the sleek vintage-inspired, wood-hulled ship extends the legendary style of The Strand Hotel to this epic Eastern journey while incorporating indulgent comforts, personalised service and modern technology such as individually controlled air conditioning and satellite Wi-Fi throughout. Life on board channels The Strand's timeless ambience as a singular, stimulating meeting place for explorers and adventure seekers with authentic cultural performances and scholarly lectures. On shore activities balance cultural touring of Bagan's temple-dappled landscape and the Buddhist monasteries of Mandalay with optional biking treks and hikes up Mount Popa, a 1,518-foot peak that is home to resident spirits called nat, at least according to our favourite 1,000 year old Burmese legends.

AYEYARWADY RIVER

Also known as «The Elephant River», it has been a lifeline as well as the keeper of secrets to the nation. The Ayeyarwady River begins at the top of the snow-capped Himalayas then flows through roughly 1.550km passing through the center of Myanmar, then throwing itself into the Andaman Sea. Hundreds if not thousands of temples, stupas and nats can be seen on its banks. Many flock down to this river for its legendary beauty but also to find lost pieces of the past.

Myanmar's turbulent past and political isolation has made travelers and discoverers in the past weary of adventuring onto the land. But no more! Myanmar has been reborn and welcomes each individual with open arms; eager to start a new chapter with the world and to let its people and culture surprise you with stories and a brand new experience.

Legends and folklore of how this waterway has come to be, have been passed down from generation to generation, to keep the spirit of the evergiving river alive.

From kings to modern day artists, this river continues to astonish and inspire those who come across its path.

MANDALAY

The bustling capital of Myanmar is acclaimed for its colorful arts, religious heritage and awe-inspiring temples. Made famous to westerners by Rudyard Kipling's poem of the same name «Mandalay». A city with an amazing patrimonial background, having been colonized by the British and raided during the second World War. Mandalay's diverse history renders it a charming city where many of its secrets have yet to be discovered.

BAGAN

Ancient chronicles suggest Bagan to have been the cultural and economic capital of the Pagan Empire in the 9th century. This fairy-tale like city is home to over 2,000 monuments over the vast plain. The exquisite scenery of these thousands of temples, stupas and pagodas will take more than your breath away. Bagan was made to amaze and inspire locals as well as travelers.

ROYAL CITIES

The Royal cities were once the historical capitals of the country. These destinations offer not only a cultural background but each also has its own incredible story in history. Mingun bestows travelers and residents one of the most architecturally beautiful and impressive Buddhist sanctuaries, the Hsinbyume Pagoda. Amarapura is home to a remarkable teak bridge. About 1.2Km long and built with over a thousand teak tiles. The bridge is known for romantic strolls during twilight hours. Sagaing is celebrated for its many monasteries and tranquil charms of its main city center. Ava, a former imperial capital of successive Burmese kingdoms from the 14th to 19th centuries can be visited by horse drawn cart.

AVA

Ava, formerly known as Inwa, is the ancient imperial capital of successive Burmese kingdoms from the 14th to 19th centuries, situated 20km south of Mandalay. It has been destroyed and rebuilt numerous times, and finally abandoned in 1839, after an earthquake. Today, people wander around the remains of its glory and the nature that invaded it on the back of a horse drawn cart.
