VICKSBURG, MS

Vicksburg National Military Park

A park ranger will guide you through the National Military Park which commemorates the campaign, siege and defense of Vicksburg in 1863. Discover the restored ironclad gunboat, U.S.S. Cairo, the battlefield where the Siege of Vicksburg took place, and the over 1,300 monuments dedicated to the brave souls who lost their lives. Explore the Visitors Center where life-sized exhibits and artifacts from the Siege of Vicksburg are on display. The excursion concludes with a brief exploration of downtown Vicksburg and the riverfront murals.

Mississippi-Made Charcuterie Experience at Oak Hall

Led by a guide, visit Oak Hall, a gorgeous 1910 Mission Revival style mansion that boasts 32 Louis Millet stained glass windows. Gather around the table to learn how to build an aesthetically pleasing presentation of a selection of a variety of Mississippi made or harvested meats, cheeses, spreads, seasonal fruits, nuts, and other accompaniments. Taste seasonal, local products and experience hospitality at its finest. Wow your guests at your next gathering by learning some advanced charcuterie techniques. Top off your experience with cocktails and mocktails made with local products and receive recipes and a souvenir mini board to take home.

Historic Vicksburg Comes to Life

As we begin our walking exploration of Vicksburg, the history of this river city from 1820 to the present comes to life. Take a leisurely stroll along its brick streets and admire the variety of architecture styles found amongst the antebellum homes, churches, and museums. As you enjoy fresh air and exercise, learn about the native flora and hear stories of the citizens who once called Vicksburg home.

Antebellum Vicksburg Experience

Experience what life was like in the 19th century on this one-of-a-kind adventure through Vicksburg's oldest neighborhood. Stop at Christ Episcopal Church (circa 1839). View the beautiful Tiffany windows of the present as the rector shares stories of the past. Take a short walk to one of the neighborhood antebellum mansions. Enjoy an exclusive guided exploration by the owner as you listen to family stories of the house and people who lived here 175 years ago. Delight in special southern-inspired refreshments.

Vicksburg Local Loop

Explore Vicksburg on your own. Stops include the Old Courthouse Museum, the Old Depot Museum, the Biedenharn Coca Cola Museum, and the main streets of Vicksburg.

NATCHEZ, MS

Natchez Views & Brews

Natchez Brewing Company is located in historic downtown Natchez, known as the oldest established city on the Mississippi River and a central hub during steamboat era. Their beer is crafted with a passion for local flavor and a love for tradition. Enjoy a step-by-step demonstration of the brewing process in the production area, from grain to glass. Learn about the ingredients, equipment, and styles of beer and sample the varieties of your choice.

Tombs & Tales

Explore the Historic Natchez Cemetery. Established in 1822, the occupants of this important cemetery tell tales of the history, grandeur, mystery, and tragedy of Natchez. Surrounded by majestic live oaks and set on the bluffs high above the Mississippi River, the beautiful grounds offer stunning panoramic views. Enjoy a guided walking excursion through the oldest section of the cemetery and hear fascinating stories about the residents buried there

Natchez Trails to Tamales Experience

On your way to Ellicott Hill, view Fort Rosalie, the site of the Natchez Indian Battle. Our local historian/scholar will paint an intriguing picture of the first French settlers arriving in Natchez in 1716, meeting with the indigenous Natchez tribe, forging a friendship soon to be lost, resulting in massacre, revolt, and retaliation. Upon arrival at Ellicott Hill, visit the site of where the first American flag was raised over this vast new American territory with a spectacular view of the Mississippi River. Learn about the colonization of Natchez, its history and culture, as well as the history of tamales. The Natchez indigenous tribes are said to have taught the enslaved Africans how to make tamales, and from there the rest is culinary history. Enjoy two Mississippi Hot Tamales, regional beer or lemonade, and explore this historic building which dates back over three centuries.

Great River Outdoor Adventure

Experience a once-in-a-lifetime outdoor adventure at the Double C Ranch, perfect for nature-lovers and wildlife-enthusiasts. Aboard your private sport utility vehicle, guided by a local professional, enjoy breathtaking views as you travel through scenic hardwood forest, cattle fields, farmlands, and pine plantations. Back at the ranch, watch in awe during live tomahawk throwing, bullwhip popping, archery, and lasso throwing demonstrations. After, get some pointers on form and technique and prepare to shine and surprise yourself as you give it a try! Take home a survivor certificate and photos to share.

Historic Longwood Exploration

Longwood is just one of the elegant houses that graces the historic district of Natchez. This octagonal house epitomizes the rise and fall of the South. As the Civil War began, the workmen stopped construction and the house was never completed. View the finished first floor with original family furnishings and the upper five stories that are still a work in progress.

Cotton & Music, Then & Now

Nineteen historical buildings, dating from 1790's to 1900, are a restored tribute to Frogmore Cotton Plantation & Gins, a modern 1,800-acre working cotton estate with a computerized farm and gin. Meet the owner who will explain the farming and ginning operations. Participate in picking cotton and removing the seeds and tour a rare, steam engine gin listed on the National Register of Historic Properties. Be seated in the hand-hewn log cabin and listen to narration and the vocalist's songs, highlighting the history of southern plantations, including the Constitution, Emancipation Proclamation, and the enslaved and planter families. Explore the cotton fields and authentic cabins to learn the origin of southern cuisine, the day-to-day operations and how their labor force evolved into sharecropping, a way of life for 100 years.

Historic Longwood and Monmouth Historic Inn & Gardens

Explore this early 19th-century antebellum mansion, reflecting all that is charming about the South. Expect gracious hospitality, historic tours of the house, and a lovingly restored garden. View the antiques found throughout, which include Waterford Crystal gasoliers, original pieces that belonged to the Quitman family, and period pieces that only add to the elegance of Monmouth. Wander around the meticulously nurtured gardens, amidst blooming magnolias, roses, azaleas, and angel statuary, accompanied by the gentle humming of cicadas. Enjoy a southern cocktail in our courtyard while you take in the beauty and history of Natchez.

Historic Path to Freedom Experience

Take a cultural, moving journey through the history of Natchez hearing the stories of African Americans, from enslavement and the Civil Rights Movement to the present day. Along this Historic Path to Freedom, you will visit Dunleith Mansion to learn about John Roy Lynch, a child servant who became the first African American to become a member of the U.S. House of Representatives. See and learn about places such as “Forks in the Road” and the Rhythm Nightclub Fire site. Travel to the Zion Station Chapel African Methodist Episcopal Church for a brief introduction by the Pastor and a spiritual musical experience by Natchez noted Gospel performers.

When you return to the motorcoach, you will learn about the Parchman Ordeal and how it forged the way for economic progress for African American citizens of Natchez. Visit the Natchez Museum of African American Culture, where the exhibits will underscore the importance of the stops along this exclusive American Cruise Lines experience.

Legends & Libations

Join a local guide for a unique and unforgettable experience, combining the history and culture of Natchez, with the opportunity to taste some of the most iconic cocktails of the region. On a guided exploration admire the architecture and design of two historic mansions.

Historic Dunleith:

Be welcomed with the refreshing taste of hibiscus mimosas, a classic cocktail made with freshly squeezed orange juice, champagne, and a house-made hibiscus syrup. While sipping, learn about Natchez history and admire the beauty of this mansion built in 1856, as well as the stunning grounds.

Historic Linden:

At this early suburban villa, try a classic southern cocktail, milk punch. Dating back to the 18th century, this libation is made with brandy, milk, sugar, and nutmeg. Delight in the rich and smooth taste, while learning about the legends of Linden, built in 1790.

Natchez Local Loop

Explore downtown Natchez on your own. Take time for shopping and strolling through town. The shuttle will make regular stops at:

- ★ Rosalie House – Visit Rosalie, an antebellum mansion in downtown Natchez. Tours begin at the top of every hour. Make sure to wear your lanyard for complimentary entry.
- ★ Fort Rosalie & Trading Post – Fort Rosalie was built by the French in 1716 within the territory of the Natchez Native Indians and it was part of the French colonial empire; becoming the first settlement in present day Natchez, Mississippi. Walk the hallowed grounds of the long gone fort and enjoy perusing the gift items of the modern trading post.
- ★ Historic Natchez in Photos – Visit the Stratton Chapel Gallery in downtown Natchez behind First Presbyterian Church. View an outstanding collection of photographs taken from as early as 1860, including family portraits, steamboats, and street scenes.
- ★ Shops on Main Street & Franklin Street – Explore the one-of-a-kind antique shops, galleries, boutiques, and gift shops. Relax at one of the fine local cafes or restaurants. Or just walk among the many beautifully restored historic buildings of this lovely town.
- ★ Historic Natchez Bluffs & Gazebo – Sitting 200 feet above the banks of the Mississippi River, the Gazebo offers the best vantage point from which to take in the River’s natural splendor.

ST. FRANCISVILLE, LA

Rosedown & Catalpa Legacy Experience

Explore and learn about the legacy and lineage of the Turnbull family at Rosedown and Catalpa. On the National Listing of Historic Landmarks, Rosedown is located in one of the most historic corridors of South Louisiana. The presence of the Mississippi River along its shores created rich soil overtime which proved extremely valuable during the cotton boom. As you stroll through this grand estate, local guides will regale you with stories of the families who lived there and plantation life in the 1800s. Enjoy exploring one of the few and largest privately maintained formal gardens of the 19th century.

Visit Catalpa and hear from Mary, a descendant of the original owners. She will host you in her gracious home filled with the treasures of five generations and recount stories of the family and growing up in this beautiful place. Fine portraits, exceptional antiques and beautiful old china, porcelain and silver are original to either Catalpa or Rosedown, home of the owner's grandmother. Conclude your exploration with a special beverage that has been served for years at Catalpa.

Cochon De Lait Experience

Cochon de lait is the art of cooking a pig before an open hardwood fire, a custom which began at least a century ago and has since been popular throughout Cajun country. Enjoy a traditional Louisiana Cochon De Lait with local musicians and Bayou Sara setting the atmosphere. Delight in the flavors of pork, Louisiana boudin, traditional potato salads, seasonal vegetables, as well as bread, crackers, and sauces to accompany dishes. Be treated to a presentation of the hog along with a verbal history lesson of its significant importance in traditional Louisiana culture.

Audubon Historic Site Exploration

Audubon Historic Site is located on Oakley Plantation, where John James Audubon lived in 1821. During this time, he was commissioned to teach illustration to the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Pirrie, owners of Oakley. Although his engagement was brief and there is no record of his success in teaching Miss Pirrie, Audubon worked on several of his paintings while in the lush, natural, and peaceful setting of Oakley, filling his sketch pad with notes and drawings for his famous series of bird illustrations. The variety of birds singing throughout the 100-acre forest inspires visitors to this day.

BATON ROUGE, LA

▼ Southern Agriculture Experience

On this informative, educational, and hands-on excursion, enjoy live field demonstrations of cane harvesting and planting, along with specialized equipment demonstrations. Learn about the different types of sugar from raw, refined, to on the stalk, as well as different sugarcane pest and borers. Be treated to a taste of the farm, including sugar cookies, fresh sugar cane stalk popsicles, and more. Next, you will have the unique opportunity to participate in creating Gyotaku, an ancient Japanese art form of copying fish or crops onto a form of rice paper. Using the farm's commodities, create your own personalized artwork that you can take home with you.

▼ Cajun Pride Swamp Excursion

Enjoy a narrated boat ride in the Manchac Swamp, a privately owned wildlife refuge. Relax in a comfortable, covered boat, with walking room and open viewing from any seat. Swamp creatures are unafraid and responsive to our captain's voice. In the safety and comfort of the boat, you will be able to get within a few feet of "jumping gators." Other animals to be on the lookout for include nutria, ibis, turtles, herons, raccoons, egrets, and more.

Baton Rouge Harbor Experience

Witness the bustling activity around Baton Rouge and hear countless stories and amazing facts about the Mississippi River's round-the-clock towing industry. Marvel at the sheer size of the pana-max vessels operating in this part of the river and pass the nearby the Exxon facility where you are likely to see the ships loading petroleum for shipment overseas. Learn how the river barges are lashed together with ratchet straps and thick cables and how the experienced river tug captains safely navigate the river with numerous barges in tow. See the Dreyfuss grain elevators working in tandem with the barges being loaded and unloaded, fueling the country's Midwest commerce. Guests should let their Cruise Director or Excursion Director know about any ADA accessibility needs so that accommodations can be made prior to the excursion.

A Walk Through the Capital

Experience the sights, sounds, and wonders of Baton Rouge, the Capital City of Louisiana, on foot. Led by a local expert guide, admire iconic and historical landmarks, while exploring many of the well-known downtown neighborhoods on foot. Enjoy fascinating stories of the area's culture, politics, history and legends. Embrace the rich art, architecture, and nature on the route.

Port Hudson State Historic Site

Led by an expert historian explore locations that were critical to Battle of Baton Rouge. Stand upon the very ground where the most intense fighting of the battle took place. Port Hudson State Historic Site, a Louisiana State Park that preserves and interprets a portion of the Port Hudson battlefield, where the longest military siege in U.S. history took place during the Civil War. Explore the Museum. View a film about the battle and siege. Admire original Civil War artifacts. Be treated to an interpretive program conducted by Louisiana State Park Staff. Guests will need to be physically able to get on and off the bus, walk short distances over both even and un-even ground.

U.S.S. Kidd

Step back in time aboard U.S.S. KIDD, the only Fletcher-class destroyer restored to her World War II configuration and now a National Historic Landmark. Berthed in a one-of-a-kind dock on the Mississippi River in Downtown Baton Rouge, she was named for Rear Admiral Isaac Campbell Kidd, killed aboard the U.S.S. ARIZONA at Pearl Harbor. KIDD's crew took Captain William Kidd as their mascot and is officially authorized to fly a Jolly Roger. Learn the KIDD's battle history, including a kamikaze attack in 1945 that took the lives of 38 crew members and service in the Korean War, before being decommissioned in 1964. Explore the shoreside museum which houses a collection of ship models, the Louisiana Veterans Hall of Honor, traveling exhibits, and additional artifacts and memorabilia of U.S.S. KIDD's service.

Baton Rouge City Experience

Begin your excursion at the Capitol Park Museum. Learn about the many diverse aspects of Louisiana, from Louis Armstrong to Mardi Gras. Continue to view the impressive Governor's Hall and the New State Capitol. Admire the Old Louisiana State Capitol, also known as the State House. Finally, enjoy views of Magnolia Mound, a French Creole plantation house built in 1791 and a rare example of the architecture influenced by early settlers from France and the West Indies.

Battle of Baton Rouge

Led by an expert historian, explore locations that were critical to the Battle of Baton Rouge and hear about the history surrounding Vicksburg in the Civil War. Visit the historic Magnolia Cemetery and stand upon the very ground where the most intense fighting of the battle took place. Baton Rouge was the most fought over land in Louisiana's history and this experience will cover not only the Civil War, but the American Revolution and the Florida Rebellion. Although the landscape of Baton Rouge isn't the same as it was in the 1780s, or 1810s, its history will be brought to life by your guide. Visit the Magnolia Mound Plantation, a Baton Rouge city park. Magnolia Mound, unlike other antebellum house museums along the Lower Mississippi, is not your grand mansion. Rather, it's a simple structure built during Louisiana's colonial history, and around the time of its Statehood into the Union.

Louisiana Art & Science Museum

Baton Rouge station is a historic train station located at 100 South River Road in downtown Baton Rouge, Louisiana. The building now houses the Louisiana Art and Science Museum. Featured are:

- ★ Fine art exhibitions of internationally renowned artists.
- ★ State-of-the-art Pennington Planetarium.
- ★ Ancient Egypt Gallery -houses ancient artifacts and a Ptolemaic-era mummy that rests in a re-created rock-cut tomb.

HOUMAS HOUSE/ OAK ALLEY, LA

Oak Alley Estate

From its canopy of 300-year-old oaks to its vast open spaces, Oak Alley's landscape tells the story of a southern plantation over time. Over 200 years ago, Oak Alley was just a land claim on a map and has since served many purposes, including as a sugar plantation, a rice farm, a chicken farm, a cattle ranch, and a country home. Agricultural tycoons, sugar planters, slaves, immigrant laborers, and real estate speculators have traversed its grounds over time. Today, Oak Alley is a National Historic Landmark, dedicated to preserving and interpreting the history of its inhabitants. With an emphasis on its time as a sugar plantation, visitors are invited to walk under its iconic alley, explore the exhibits, interact with staff, and leave with a richer, more powerful understanding of this plantation's complex history. For the full southern experience, don't forget to take time for a complimentary mint julep.

Houmas House & Gardens

The stately grandeur of Houmas House is complemented by the flair of our guide, Ms. Judy Davis, who has a personality as magnificent as the mansion itself. As we arrive, we will be greeted on the riverbank to begin our private exploration through the gardens to the 16-room plantation home. Once inside, the velvet ropes are removed and permission is granted to use the home's furniture for a truly authentic experience. During the excursion, she brings stories of the home's many inhabitants to life through the unique collection of Louisiana art. After, you will have time to explore the gardens on your own.

“Ca C’est Bon” Culinary Experience at the Cajun Village

Come “veiller” (shoot the breeze) with Boudreaux and Thibodeaux as you stir up your very own “ti” (junior) pot of jambalaya in the old Robert Barn by the Cajun Cottages. Be entertained with Cajun folktales while getting step-by-step coaching from a local Cajun jambalaya cook. After dining, enjoy shopping in the Cajun Village, a unique location with specialty crafts and Louisiana items. In case you have the “envie” (craving) for a cup of café au lait and beignets, you can swing by the Coffee House for complimentary beignets.

NEW ORLEANS, LA

National WWII Museum

The National WWII Museum illustrates the story of the American experience in a war that changed the world. This extraordinary museum is located on a six-acre campus where five soaring pavilions house exhibits, multimedia experiences, and thousands of personal accounts that take visitors on an immersive exploration of World War II.
