BRIDGES

Tauck Bridges Family Adventures

Europe Land Journeys

Enriching family travel for every generation

When it comes to your family's European vacation, we make it easy to explore the sights with all-inclusive advantages on fully planned adventures that are effortless, included – and fun – on every trip.

Make history come alive in the places you've read about, learning the finer points of ancient Roman sports at gladiator school, participating in Olympic games in Greece, or having dinner in a royal palace. Learn about different cultures, hands-on with the locals, rock climbing in Switzerland, falconry in Ireland, making a tweed laptop bag in Edinburgh, pizza making in Florence, cheesemaking at an Italian agriturismo, and so much more.

Bask in the beauty of the places you explore by train, cable car, and private boats. Bicycle through London's royal parks, hike in the mountains of Switzerland, go land yachting in Scotland, and swim at beachside resorts in Greece.

Wherever you go, experience the essence of the destination with activities designed to make you feel like locals – bridging cultures and making lasting connections that bring families together.

Fully planned and all inclusive

Designed for enriching multigenerational travel, our all-inclusive adventures are fully planned and orchestrated for you, ensuring a stress-free family vacation that's fun for everyone. Enjoy peace of mind knowing that everything you need for the vacation of a lifetime, from the best hotels to guided sightseeing, special activities, and dining experiences tailored specifically for families, is included in one upfront price.

Premier accommodations

Where you stay is an important part of your travel experience. Our trips feature premium, family-friendly accommodations – many with swimming pools – in the heart of the destinations you explore with us. Each has been hand-selected for comfort, service, ambiance, and location, assuring that your family feels right at home while traveling with us.

Insider access

For shared memories that last lifetimes, our family vacations include exclusive cultural experiences that you couldn't experience on your own. Enjoy private visits to landmark sites like Rome's Galleria Borghese with an expert guide, without waiting on long lines. Have dinner on family-owned farms for Tauck Bridges only. Our longstanding relationships with people and places throughout Europe open doors to hidden gems, local treasures, and must-see sites not available to other travelers.

The Legends of Scotland

Experience a hands-on look at Scottish life, from bagpiping and tweed workshops, to land yachting, Hairy Coos, highland games and more.

Day 1 - 4. Edinburgh. Explore Edinburgh Castle, learn to play the bagpipes, make a tweed laptop bag, and taste your way through Edinburgh on a foodie tour. Go land yachting in St. Andrews, have lunch on a farm, and meet alpacas for a day of non-stop fun. Be inspired by Scottish design at Dundee's V&A Museum and come aboard the RRS Discovery as you uncover the tale of a most heroic voyage.

Day 5 - 7. Inverness. Drive to Rothiemurchus for morning tea. Meet Hairy Coos, feed local deer, and head out on a ranger experience. A "Barbie at the Bothy" tempts with Scottish fare and your competitive spirit comes out during Highland games. Legends of Nessie surface on a boat ride and a sweets-making lesson whets your appetite for local treats. Try your hand at archery and bushcraft. Then it's cheerio as you head home from your holiday in Scotland.

★ Journey at a Glance

- 1 Arrive Edinburgh, city sights & the Castle
- 2 Bagpipes, tweed and foodie tour in Edinburgh

Bagpipe Workshop with Roddy the Piper

There's nothing more distinctive than the sound of Scottish bagpipes and images of kilt-clad pipers who play them. Learn how they do it at a workshop with Roddy the Piper, who shows you how to play a tune or two.

“Blown Away” Land Yachting

Prepare to sail across the beach in St. Andrews as you race your friends and family at top speed in a land yacht that's powered by the wind and steered by you. No sailing experience needed for this interactive ride.

Meet “Hairy Coos” in the Highlands

Meet Scotland's iconic cows with long, shaggy hair, often called “hairy cows” or “Hairy Coos” in the old Scots language. Their distinctive long coats helps them survive winter weather conditions in the Scottish Highlands.

Greek Odyssey: Family Edition

From mythological sites and Olympic Games to an ancient city and an unspoiled beach resort, make history come alive on this new family odyssey in Greece.

Day 1 - 4. Athens. Experience the mythological sites of Athens as you explore the hilltop Acropolis with a private guide to see where stories of Greek goddesses and gods live on. Visit the archaeological site of Delphi, an ancient Greek sanctuary dedicated to the god Apollo, and considered the center of the world by the ancient Greeks. And take a ferry to car-free Hydra to discover the joys of island life on a guided walking tour.

Day 5 - 7. Costa Navarino. Head to a beachside resort in one of the prettiest parts of Greece, stopping at a country farm for a taste of local fare. See where the Olympic Games were born during an inspiring visit to Olympia and take a boat ride along the coast. Join in Olympic Games of your own during a friendly family competition every generation will enjoy together.

Learn how to make authentic Italian pizza

No visit to Italy is complete without a pizza dinner because this is where pizza was born. Learn how expert pizza bakers make this popular dish, then make it your own when you top it off your way and enjoy it for dinner.

Zip through Florence in a vintage Fiat 500

The Fiat 500 is a symbol of Italian culture, ingenuity, and practical design. Introduced in 1957, it quickly captured hearts around the world. After you explore Florence in one, it just might capture your heart too!

The Sweet Life: Rome & Sorrento

Experience a look at life in ancient Rome at a gladiator school, in Pompeii frozen in time, on a country farm, on the Isle of Capri and along the Amalfi Coast.

Day 1 - 3. Rome. Your discoveries begin with a guided tour of ancient Rome. See the Colosseum, take a class at gladiator school, go underground in the catacombs, and enjoy a private tour of the Galleria Borghese, where sculptures come to life through stories you'll hear. Visit the Vatican Museums and Sistine Chapel on a privately guided tour, and explore St. Peter's Square and the Pantheon with a knowledgeable local guide.

Day 4 - 6. Sorrento. Board a high-speed train bound for Naples and visit the city of Pompeii, frozen in time. Enjoy a taste of cheesemaking at a local agriturismo, make your own pizza dinner, and learn to dance the Tarantella. Ferry to Capri and explore in a private convertible. Drive to pretty Positano and board a private boat for a cruise along the Amalfi Coast, disembarking in lemon-scented Amalfi to explore as you wish. Add in family-style meals, swimming pool fun, and new friends for a real taste of the sweet life in Italy.
