

What's New for 2026

Thank you for inspiring us to continually raise the bar in enriching and innovative travel. As we enter our next century, we are pleased to introduce two new journeys to Greece and Scandinavia that explore Delphi's oracles, Cretan shores, and Viking history.

A Week In... Copenhagen and Oslo
Colourful Nyhavn, Copenhagen's iconic harbour district, captures the city's maritime spirit with historic townhouses and classic wooden ships along the canal, see p. 74

New 2026 journeys

Hidden Greece (p. 18)

Experience Greece from north to south on a journey beyond the well-trodden paths. Discover Thessaloniki's coastal treasures and ancient sites, the stunning hilltop monasteries of Meteora, the time-honoured legacies of Olympia and Delphi, the sunlit shores of Costa Navarino – and ancient Athens and Crete, where captivating landscapes hold centuries of stories and legends.

A Week In... Copenhagen & Oslo (p. 74)

Denmark and Norway reveal their rich cultural layers, where dramatic landscapes, innovative design, and Viking legacies shape the experience. Explore Copenhagen's storied past, from Hans Christian Andersen's home and museum to royal palaces and the vibrant lights of Tivoli. In Oslo, discover outdoor sculptures, Viking history, a fjord cruise, the Munch Museum, and more.

Classic journeys reimaged

A Week In... Scotland (p. 156)

Experience the spirit of Scotland – from its ancient stones and storied castles to the sweeping majesty of its Highland wilderness. Stay in Edinburgh, Inverness, and Loch Lomond, and discover the Palace of Holyroodhouse, the echoes of history at Culloden Moor, Scotland's oldest working distillery, and the enduring charm of St. Andrews for a deeper connection.

Normandy, Brittany, Paris & the Loire Valley (p. 104)

Experience the history and beauty of France on a journey from the gardens of Giverny and the seaside charm of Deauville to the fortified walls of St. Malo and the grand estates of the Loire Valley. Explore the medieval ramparts of Mont St. Michel, the poignant D-Day beaches of Normandy, and three nights exploring the iconic landmarks of Paris, with a private cruise on the Seine.

Top to bottom:

Soaring stone pillars crowned with ancient monasteries – Meteora's landscape reflects a centuries-old harmony between nature and faith.

See where history was made – the windswept sands of Omaha Beach, where courage met the tide of WWII history.

Nestled in the heart of the Scottish Highlands, Glenturret Distillery is Scotland's oldest working distillery.
