

TAUCK

2026

United by curiosity. Exclusively for women.

Invite your clients to celebrate the joy of discovery with women who share their spirit for adventure. Tauck has designated three special 2026 departures – each averaging 24 guests – for women travelers seeking connection, camaraderie, and cultural discovery. These journeys offer the same enriching experiences and Tauck's signature service, enhanced by the shared perspective and easy rapport that come from traveling in the company of women.

Insider experiences and access

It's not just about where your clients travel – it's how they experience it. Tauck's women-only departures offer insider access, exclusive experiences, and expert guides who reveal each destination's hidden treasures.

Exceptional hotels, cuisine, and wine

Every detail of these journeys reflects the art of true cultural immersion. From private estate lunches and vineyard tastings to elegant stays in historic castles and boutique hotels, each experience offers travelers an authentic taste of place.

Connection and community

Perfect for women who love to explore in good company, Tauck provides the space to simply be present – to connect, share, and experience the joy of discovery together, with every detail cared for and every moment thoughtfully planned.

THREE EXTRAORDINARY JOURNEYS FOR WOMEN TRAVELERS

Tauck is pleased to introduce three special 2026 departures of popular journeys in Ireland, Italy and Portugal – for women travelers only. These journeys invite your clients to share experiences, stories, and conversation with like-minded women who travel the way they do.

Women-Only Departures

A Week In... Ireland

SEPTEMBER 23-30, 2026

A lush, heart-warming escape through Ireland's castles, coastlines, and cobblestone charm. It's part storybook, part sisterhood, filled with moments of laughter, music, and shared discovery.

- Indulge your dreams of living in a castle during a two-night stay at 16th-century Dromoland Castle, renowned for its historic grandeur, magnificent views and warm Irish welcomes
- Enjoy cultural immersion through stories, traditional music, local women artisans, and whiskey tastings

A Week In... Piedmont

OCTOBER 1-8, 2026

An indulgent retreat in Italy's slow-food heartland, where hills, vineyards, and royal palaces create a feast for all senses. Designed for women who savor beauty, cuisine, and connection, with space to pause and breathe.

- Experience the art of truffle hunting in Serralunga d'Alba, discovering the secrets of one of the rarest foods on Earth – the priceless white truffle
- Enjoy lunch prepared by students at the Slow Food University in the Langhe Hills of Pollenzo, where the natural slow food movement started

A Week In... Portugal

OCTOBER 10-17, 2026

A soulful journey through Portugal's coastal charm - where wine cellars meet sea breezes, and grand cities blend with small-town warmth. Guided experiences in Porto and Lisbon, time to unwind in Évora, and evenings that end with laughter and great food.

- An evening at the royal 18th-century Palácio de Queluz just outside of Lisbon includes a private reception and farewell dinner in the gilded palace
- Learn about Portugal's world-famous "liquid gold," Port wine, during a tour and tasting in a wine cellar in Porto, where it is aged to perfection

