A dense forest of green trees covers the slopes of a mountain that rises from the beach. A calm lake is nestled within the forested area. In the background, rolling green hills and a small town are visible under a clear blue sky.

Crossing oceans — the Crystal way

AZORES, PORTUGAL

With Crystal, a transoceanic voyage is not simply a passage between two places; it is an experience to be treasured

Who doesn't dream of crossing oceans? Spending quality days at sea, mesmerized by the rolling light, the shifting waves, the billowing clouds, the ever-constant line of the horizon – it's enough to inspire even the most devout landlubber. A day at sea invites you to slow down and savor the journey itself. On a transoceanic crossing, without the rush of daily port calls, you have the time to truly reconnect and reset.

Of course, a sea day is defined by your surroundings – and that's where Crystal excels. Our spacious, comfortable suites and guest rooms provide a private sanctuary, complete with a butler to ensure everything is just how you like it. Our elegant lounges and bars, meanwhile, are convivial spaces in which to relax or gather with friends, and our serene spa offers the ultimate escape.

There is so much to do, you might wonder if you have enough sea days to experience everything on board, whether that's pitting your wits in lively games of bridge or pickleball or simply curled up with a book and a pot of tea, magically refreshed by your server, the horizon stretching out ahead. And with nine distinct dining options available, including our exclusive collaborations with master chef Nobu Matsuhisa and the Alajmo brothers, who run the three-Michelin-starred Le Calandre in Rubano, Italy, you never need eat the same dish twice – unless you want to, of course.

A transoceanic crossing is also an opportunity to forge lasting connections with the community of fellow guests on board. Share conversations over skillfully crafted cocktails, explore new interests through specialist lectures and expert-led classes, or take a spin around the dance floor with one of our hosts to the sounds of a live band. Throughout your voyage, our exceptional crew anticipates your every wish, showcasing the warm, intuitive service that defines the Crystal experience, ensuring you feel completely at home from the moment you first step on board until it's time to bid farewell.

Simply put, a Crystal transoceanic voyage is more than a crossing between continents. It is a return to the romance of the golden age of travel, where time is measured by the sweep of a wave, and where the journey is just as memorable as the destination you are sailing towards. ♦

LISBON → FORT LAUDERDALE

From wine-tasting and whale-watching to lazy sea days, mix action with relaxation

PONTA DELGADA, AZORES

15 NIGHTS	NOV 8 - NOV 23, 2026	CRYSTAL SERENITY
-----------	----------------------	------------------

We start our adventure with two relaxing days at sea, plenty of time to unwind and slip into cruise life, as we make our way towards our first destination, the Azores. We'll make three stops at this archipelago – Praia da Vitoria, Ponta Delgada, and Horta – with exciting activities including whale watching, sampling the islands' delicious wines, and stepping into the past in the UNESCO World Heritage site of Angra do Heroísmo, the archipelago's oldest city. Four more days at sea allows time to enjoy all the ship has to offer before Antigua emerges on the horizon. Bask on one of its many beaches before we hop through the Caribbean, visiting Jost van Dyke in the British Virgin Islands to snorkel with sea turtles, and the pretty pastel-colored streets of San Juan in Puerto Rico. Now is your last chance to indulge in the spa or relax by the pool, as we take the scenic route to our final stop, Fort Lauderdale.

SANTA CRUZ DE LA PALMA

WELLNESS VOYAGE
13 NIGHTS	MAR 20 - APR 2, 2027	CRYSTAL SYMPHONY

From the Caribbean to the Canary Islands, this ocean-crossing voyage is the perfect blend of shore adventures and plenty of time enjoying the ship. Settle into life onboard as two relaxing sea days take us first from Fort Lauderdale to San Juan, Puerto Rico's lively capital. The gingerbread houses and quaint cafés of Marigot, St. Martin, follow, before we visit the Georgian-era dockyard where Nelson sheltered his fleet in St. John's, Antigua. Then we have five days at sea crossing the Atlantic – the perfect opportunity to enjoy our complimentary onboard wellness program – before we arrive in Spain. The Canary Islands are a rewarding mix of colonial-style architecture, cobbled streets, historic buildings, and striking black-sand beaches, and we have a trio of stops so you can experience it all: Santa Cruz de la Palma, Santa Cruz de Tenerife, and Las Palmas de Gran Canaria, where our journey ends.

In Hakodate, tea is served overlooking the rose garden at the former British Consulate; in Aomori, the apple and cherry orchards set against the Hakkoda Mountains create a beautiful scene; and in Kushiro there are red-crowned cranes to spot on the marshes. Now comes some serious sailing as we spend six days at sea – and cross the International Date Line – on our way to Alaska. We make landfall at Kodiak, where bald eagles soar overhead, while Seward, our final stop, is the gateway to magnificent mountains and fjords. It's a fitting conclusion to this magnificent cross-continent voyage.

First, we call at Ponta Delgada, where the attractions include a pineapple plantation, and then we move on to Horta, with its colorful murals painted by visiting sailors.
